Guidelines for Implementation

All faculty members shall align their lesson plans and course delivery with the academic weeks above.

Classes run Monday to Friday; Saturday and Sunday are the weekly non-instructional days for this session.

The Mid-Term Examination shall be conducted during Class Week 13 (June 14–19, 2026).

Internal assessments and continuous evaluation must be completed before the Pre-Board / Assessment Week (Week 21).

Attendance, assignments, presentations, term papers and internal exams shall contribute to final grading as per University norms.

Community-specific festival days are observed as holidays for the respective communities.

Heads of Departments shall ensure proper monitoring and record-keeping of teaching days.

Remarks

This college calendar is prepared in alignment with the Master's Academic Calendar (March 2026) issued by Lincoln University College, Malaysia.

In case of any change in the national or University-level calendar, the College reserves the right to revise the academic plan accordingly.

Students are strongly advised not to take leave during instructional and examination weeks.

For any changes, always refer to official College notifications or contact the Academic Coordinator.
